A Message from

RABBI SALKIN

A man decided to build a synagogue for his community. When the people came for the first time, someone asked: "It's beautiful, but where are the lamps?"

The man pointed to brackets on the walls. Then, he gave each family a lamp. "Whenever you come to synagogue, bring your lamp with you. If you're not here, your part of the synagogue will be dark."

When you give to Temple Solel's High Holy Day Appeal, you will bring your own light to our synagogue.

In this past year:

- We created Solel University with standing room only Shabbat morning Torah study, midweek classes, and "Theater at Solel"
- We inspired 90% of our young people to continue their involvement with Solel, through confirmation and our new youth program
- We began "regular" Shabbat morning services, with deep spiritual reflection and participation by our young people

And in the next few months we plan:

- To build a new playground, which will add enormous value to our amazing Early Childhood Center
- To reach our "Prayer Book Project" goal of raising $100,000 for Mishkan HaNefesh
- To continue our activism in the larger South Florida community, and especially in the area of Sea Level Rise
- To continue expanding our educational program through twelfth grade
- To welcome Rabbi Donniel Hartman, one of Judaism's most important thinkers, to Solel

We are proud to be a part of the Temple Solel community whose members exemplify the meaning of generosity and tzedakah. This year we have the opportunity to ask ourselves: "What does Temple Solel mean to me?" We hope that every member will consider giving a meaningful gift this High Holy Day season.

Shanah tovah u'metukah - may it be a good, sweet year for all of us.

And may we all keep the lights shining.

Shalom,
Rabbi Jeffrey Salkin

A Message from

CANTOR ROSEN

At this New Year, a time of tremendous change, we are called upon to lift our voices and pray even harder for Shalom — for peace in our world and in the Middle East. May peace dwell within each of our hearts and within the souls of our families.

AMEN
Cantor Israel Rosen

A Message from

RABBI FRAZIN

My dear family of Solel,

I appreciate all that you have done for my family and me during the horrible tragedy that has beset us. I was unable to attend the Temple's annual meeting this year as I was in Atlanta visiting with my children and grandchildren as together we sought healing from the sorrow that filled our lives.

As we are about to begin a new year on our Hebrew calendar, I must commend Joseph Stadlen for his superb Temple leadership during the past few years. He, along with our Executive Board of Directors and our general board, has set the Temple on a positive course in regaining the message and meaning of Solel as a synagogue of pathfinders creating a dynamic and refreshing direction for all who foster Reform Judaism.

Our new president, Jason Adler, along with his rabbinical search committee has selected a superb rabbinic leader for our congregation.

My colleague, Rabbi Jeff Salkin, in his first year in Solel, has served as a source of enlightenment, enrichment and erudition. The warmth and strength he exudes from the bimah and the lessons expressed through his vast knowledge serve as an endless source of inspiration to all who listen to and read his words. As a guide to Torah and Jewish learning, as far as I'm concerned, no one can surpass him. I sincerely hope that all of you, if you haven't already done so, will give yourselves the Hanukkah gift the Rabbi is offering this year in visiting the state of Israel.

Our congregation is now not only blessed with a rabbinic scholar but also a caring and compassionate soul. When my children, grandchildren and I and Penny's brother and sister were suffering from the passing of our beloved Penny, it was the Rabbi who came to my home to comfort us not only numerous times before the funeral but he also inspired us, along with Cantor Rosen, during the shiva and minyans that followed the services in the Temple and the cemetery.

I'm certain you will agree with me that the Rabbi's eulogy described Penny and our love for her superbly. It was a magnificent tribute to her.

In addition, I spoke to a number of former members in our sanctuary prior to the funeral service and afterwards, and I'm certain they wished they had never left Solel, as they listened to Rabbi Salkin's superb and inspiring message. To me, every word he spoke glistened with images that sparkled during a time of enormous darkness in the life of the Frazin family. I thank my esteemed colleague, I am proud to call him, "my Rabbi."

I want to especially thank our Temple sisterhood for their kindness during this past year. Each Shabbat, many of its members provided Penny and I with Shabbat dinners. They would bring us food that not only was enough for Friday night and Shabbat morning but also for days that followed. They made certain that we had enough to eat and that we would not have to prepare meals.

During and since shivah, through the organization of Joanna Berens, our sisterhood and so many others in our Temple family, as well as the thoughtfulness of Stacey and Brad Friedman and Artisan Foods, my family and I have not been without food. There are those in the Temple who have invited me for dinner in their homes. The sweetness that we call Solel continues through Temple members who have helped to soften my loneliness. I am still writing hundreds of thank you notes in gratitude for the numerous donations to Temple funds in memory of Penny as well as the numerous donations to Jewish agencies, the Hollywood Scholarship Foundation, M.S.A., the Parkinson Foundation and other causes.

My dear friends, may G-d grant all of us in our Family of Solel, a new year, 5777, filled with the blessings that bring us shalom, the blessing that brings us peace.

Gratefully and with everlasting love,
Bob

On Rosh Hashanah it is written. On Yom Kippur it is sealed. May it be your will, Eternal Our God, that the year 5777 bring to us, the whole House of Israel, to all the world, life and peace, joy and exaltation, redemption and comfort. AMEN

Yizkor Services

Four times a year Jews recite a special service called Yizkor. The Yizkor or "Remembrance" service is recited on Yom Kippur, the last days of Sukkot, Passover and Shavuot. Jewish tradition mandates that you attend Yizkor if you have lost a parent, spouse, sibling or child. Attending Yizkor is the way in which our tradition helps us keep the memory of those significant people in our lives who have gone to their eternal rest.

The 5777 Yizkor schedule follows:

☆ Yom Kippur ☆

Wednesday, October 12, 2016 at 4:45 pm

☆ Shemini Atzeret ☆

(End of Sukkot)

Monday, October 24, 2016 at 9:00 am

☆ Passover ☆

Monday, April 17, 2017 at 9:00 am

☆ Shavuot ☆

Wednesday, May 31, 2017 at 9:00 am

Psalm 23

יְיָ רֹעִי, לֹא אֶחָסֵר.
בְּנֵאוֹת יְדִשָּׁא יִרְבִּיצָנִי,
עַל־מֵי מְנוּחֹת יִנְהַלֵּנִי.
נַפְשִׁי יִשׁוּבָב,
יִנְחֵנִי בְּמַעְגְלֵי־צֶדֶק לְמַעַן שְׁמוֹ.
גַּם כִּי־אֵלֶךְ בְּגֵיא צִלְמוֹת
לֹא־אִירָא רָע, כִּי־אִתָּה עֶמְדִּי.
שִׁבְטְךָ וּמַשְׁעֲנֹתְךָ הִמָּה יִנְחֵמָנִי.
תַּעֲרֹךְ לִפְנֵי שְׁלֹחַן נֹגֵד צִרְיָי.
דִּשְׁנֹתָ בַשֶּׁמֶן רֹאשִׁי, כּוֹסֵי רְנוּיָה.
אֵף טוֹב וְחֶסֶד יְרַדְּפוּנִי כָּל־יְמֵי חַיָּי,
וְשִׁבְתִּי בְּבֵית־יְיָ לְאָרְךָ יָמִים.

Eternal God, You are my shepherd, I shall not want. You make me lie down in green pastures. You lead me beside still waters. You restore my soul. You lead me in right paths for the sake of Your name. Even when I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil, for You are with me; with rod and staff You comfort me. You have set a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You have anointed my head with oil, my cup overflows. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Eternal God for ever.

Psalm 121

אֲשָׁא עֵינַי אֶל־הַהָרִים, מֵאֵין יָבוֹא עֲזָרִי? עֲזָרִי מֵעַם
יְיָ עָשָׂה שָׁמַיִם וָאָרֶץ. אֶל־יִתֵּן לָמוֹט רַגְלִי, אֶל־יָנוּם
שֹׁמְרִי. הִנֵּה לֹא־יָנוּם וְלֹא יִישָׁן שׁוֹמֵר יִשְׂרָאֵל. יְיָ
שֹׁמְרִי, יְיָ צִלְּךָ עַל־יַד יְמִינִי. יוֹמָם הַשֶּׁמֶשׁ לֹא־
יַכְכָּה, וַיָּרֶחַ בַּלַּיְלָה. יְיָ יִשְׁמְרֶךָ מִכָּל־רָע, יִשְׁמֹר אֶת־
נַפְשִׁי: יְיָ יִשְׁמַר־צִאֲתְךָ וּבֹאֲךָ, מֵעַתָּה וְעַד־עוֹלָם.

*I lift up my eyes to the mountains:
what is the source of my help?
My help will come from the Eternal,
Maker of heaven and earth.*

*God will not allow your foot to slip;
your Guardian does not slumber.
Behold, the Guardian of Israel neither slumbers nor sleeps.
The Eternal is your Keeper,
the Eternal is your shade at your right hand.
The sun shall not harm you by day, nor the moon by night.
The Eternal will guard you from all evil,
God will protect your being.
The Eternal will guard you, coming and going,
from this time forth, and for ever.*
